SECTION 10 - INFORMATION SHARING DECLARATION FOR APPLICANTS AND CUSTOMERS

As you have applied for housing with Future Health and Social Care, we need to assess your application carefully to ensure that all of your Housing Needs are taken into account. To do this, we may need to contact various organisations. We may also need to contact your support provider to see how they are currently supporting you. These may include landlords, social Services (various departments), Probation, Mental Health Teams, Prison Service, voluntary Organisations and other Support Services. We will advise you of which services we need to contact and why this is necessary. We will advise them that you have applied to us for services, or are a customer of our Services and explain why we are contacting them.

We would like for you to give us your permission to gain relevant information about your circumstances. We may not be able to assess your application fully or help you to get the housing you need if we are unable to obtain relevant information, and we would explain this to you at the time, should this be the case.
